1. Professional Experience or Skills

Some nonprofits are looking for specific types of expertise or skills to help their organization. For example, community members with experience in accounting/finance, law, human resources, board governance, fundraising, marketing/communications, organizational management, leadership/personal development, capacity building, advocacy, technology, multi-lingual, etc. can be helpful to an organization)

Please describe your board member needs in terms of professional experience or skills:

Please state your mission and briefly describe any programs and/or initiatives you offer:

2. Board Service Diversity

Recruiting diverse board members should be a top priority for nonprofits to ensure all perspectives and communities they serve are represented. Organizations should consider several attributes when it comes to diversity including--but not limited to--race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age and diversity of thought.

Please describe your board member needs in terms of diversity:
